

CBA In-House CPD – Accreditation

Creating a Positive Work Environment:

Managing the Return to the Office

Live webinar (February 18, 2025): See the table (below) for accreditation information in all Canadian jurisdictions.

Archived recording: Some jurisdictions have restrictions on the number of recorded webinar hours that qualify as eligible continuing professional development ("CPD"). Please contact the regulator in your jurisdiction for further information.

Jurisdiction	Substantive, skills, and/or procedural content	Ethics, professionalism, and/or practice management
Alberta	Please consider including this course as a learning activity in your annual CPD Plan.
British Columbia	45m	15m
Manitoba	Please consider applying this program towards your annual CPD requirement. (CBA In-House Estimate: 15m of ethics, professionalism, and/or practice management content and 45m of substantive, skills, and/or procedural content)
New Brunswick	Please consider including this course as a learning activity in your mandatory annual CPD report.
Newfoundland & Labrador	Please consider applying this activity towards your annual mandatory CPD requirement.
Northwest Territories	Please consider including this activity in your annual mandatory CPD report. (CBA In-House Estimate: 15m of ethics, professionalism, and/or practice management content and 45m of substantive, skills, and/or procedural content)
Nova Scotia	Please consider including this course as a learning activity in your mandatory annual CPD Plan.
Nunavut	Please consider including this activity in your annual mandatory continuing legal education report. (CBA In-House Estimate: 15m of ethics, professionalism, and/or practice management content and 45m of substantive, skills, and/or procedural content)
Ontario	45m	15m
Prince Edward Island	Please consider including this activity to fulfill your mandatory CPD requirement in your biennial report. (CBA In-House Estimate: 15m of ethics, professionalism, and/or practice management content and 45m of substantive, skills, and/or procedural content)
Québec	Please consider including this course as a learning activity in your mandatory biennial CPD Plan.
Saskatchewan	This program qualifies for 1 CPD hour (0.25 of which qualifies as an ethics hour) under the Law Society of Saskatchewan Continuing Professional Development Policy.
Yukon	Please consider including this activity in your annual mandatory CPD report.

This organization has been approved as an Accredited Provider of Professionalism Content by the Law Society of Ontario.

This organization is also an approved CPD provider for the Law Society of Saskatchewan and the Law Society of British Columbia.

CBA In-House CPD – Accreditation

Creating a Positive Work Environment: Building and Supporting Your Legal Department & Teams

Live webinar (April 29, 2025): See the table (below) for accreditation information in all Canadian jurisdictions.

Archived recording: Some jurisdictions have restrictions on the number of recorded webinar hours that qualify as eligible continuing professional development (“CPD”). Please contact the regulator in your jurisdiction for further information.

Jurisdiction	Substantive, skills, and/or procedural content	Ethics, professionalism, and/or practice management
Alberta	Please consider including this course as a learning activity in your annual CPD Plan.
British Columbia	-	1h
Manitoba	Please consider applying this program towards your annual CPD requirement. (CBA In-House Estimate: 1h of ethics, professionalism, and/or practice management content)
New Brunswick	Please consider including this course as a learning activity in your mandatory annual CPD report.
Newfoundland & Labrador	Please consider applying this activity towards your annual mandatory CPD requirement.
Northwest Territories	Please consider including this activity in your annual mandatory CPD report. (CBA In-House Estimate: 1h of ethics, professionalism, and/or practice management)
Nova Scotia	Please consider including this course as a learning activity in your mandatory annual CPD Plan.
Nunavut	Please consider including this activity in your annual mandatory continuing legal education report. (CBA In-House Estimate: 1h of ethics, professionalism, and/or practice management content)
Ontario	-	1h
Prince Edward Island	Please consider including this activity to fulfill your mandatory CPD requirement in your biennial report. (CBA In-House Estimate: 1h of ethics, professionalism, and/or practice management content)
Québec	Please consider including this course as a learning activity in your mandatory biennial CPD Plan.
Saskatchewan	This program qualifies for 1 CPD hour (1h of which qualifies as an ethics hour) under the Law Society of Saskatchewan Continuing Professional Development Policy.
Yukon	Please consider including this activity in your annual mandatory CPD report.

This organization has been approved as an Accredited Provider of Professionalism Content by the Law Society of Ontario.

This organization is also an approved CPD provider for the Law Society of Saskatchewan and the Law Society of British Columbia.

CBA In-House CPD – Accreditation

Creating a Positive Work Environment: A Manager’s Guide to Workplace Bullying and Harassment

Live webinar (June 4, 2025): See the table (below) for accreditation information in all Canadian jurisdictions.

Archived recording: Some jurisdictions have restrictions on the number of recorded webinar hours that qualify as eligible continuing professional development (“CPD”). Please contact the regulator in your jurisdiction for further information.

Jurisdiction	Substantive, skills, and/or procedural content	Ethics, professionalism, and/or practice management
Alberta	Please consider including this course as a learning activity in your annual CPD Plan.
British Columbia	-	1h
Manitoba	Please consider applying this program towards your annual CPD requirement. (CBA In-House Estimate: 1h of ethics, professionalism, and/or practice management content)
New Brunswick	Please consider including this course as a learning activity in your mandatory annual CPD report.
Newfoundland & Labrador	Please consider applying this activity towards your annual mandatory CPD requirement.
Northwest Territories	Please consider including this activity in your annual mandatory CPD report. (CBA In-House Estimate: 1h of ethics, professionalism, and/or practice management)
Nova Scotia	Please consider including this course as a learning activity in your mandatory annual CPD Plan.
Nunavut	Please consider including this activity in your annual mandatory continuing legal education report. (CBA In-House Estimate: 1h of ethics, professionalism, and/or practice management content)
Ontario	-	1h
Prince Edward Island	Please consider including this activity to fulfill your mandatory CPD requirement in your biennial report. (CBA In-House Estimate: 1h of ethics, professionalism, and/or practice management content)
Québec	Please consider including this course as a learning activity in your mandatory biennial CPD Plan.
Saskatchewan	This program qualifies for 1 CPD hour (1h of which qualifies as an ethics hour) under the Law Society of Saskatchewan Continuing Professional Development Policy.
Yukon	Please consider including this activity in your annual mandatory CPD report.

This organization has been approved as an Accredited Provider of Professionalism Content by the Law Society of Ontario.

This organization is also an approved CPD provider for the Law Society of Saskatchewan and the Law Society of British Columbia.

CBA In-House CPD – Accreditation

Creating a Positive Work Environment: Fostering Disability-Inclusive Work Environments

Live webinar (December 10, 2025): See the table (below) for accreditation information in all Canadian jurisdictions.

Archived recording: Some jurisdictions have restrictions on the number of recorded webinar hours that qualify as eligible continuing professional development (“CPD”). Please contact the regulator in your jurisdiction for further information.

Jurisdiction	Substantive, skills, and/or procedural content	Ethics, professionalism, and/or practice management
Alberta	Please consider including this course as a learning activity in your annual CPD Plan.
British Columbia	-	1h
Manitoba	Please consider applying this program towards your annual CPD requirement. (CBA In-House Estimate: 1h of ethics, professionalism, and/or practice management content)
New Brunswick	Please consider including this course as a learning activity in your mandatory annual CPD report.
Newfoundland & Labrador	Please consider applying this activity towards your annual mandatory CPD requirement.
Northwest Territories	Please consider including this activity in your annual mandatory CPD report. (CBA In-House Estimate: 1h of ethics, professionalism, and/or practice management)
Nova Scotia	Please consider including this course as a learning activity in your mandatory annual CPD Plan.
Nunavut	Please consider including this activity in your annual mandatory continuing legal education report. (CBA In-House Estimate: 1h of ethics, professionalism, and/or practice management content)
Ontario	-	1h
Prince Edward Island	Please consider including this activity to fulfill your mandatory CPD requirement in your biennial report. (CBA In-House Estimate: 1h of ethics, professionalism, and/or practice management content)
Québec	Please consider including this course as a learning activity in your mandatory biennial CPD Plan.
Saskatchewan	This program qualifies for 1 CPD hour (1h of which qualifies as an ethics hour) under the Law Society of Saskatchewan Continuing Professional Development Policy.
Yukon	Please consider including this activity in your annual mandatory CPD report.

This organization has been approved as an Accredited Provider of Professionalism Content by the Law Society of Ontario.

This organization is also an approved CPD provider for the Law Society of Saskatchewan and the Law Society of British Columbia.